

Accident Prevention

The purpose of this procedure is to provide a safe work environment for the client's Team. Proactive management and identification of hazards is essential in the prevention of near misses, injuries and incidents of property damage. The Zion's Safety/Near Miss Incident Process is used to investigate Potential Accident Recognition (P.A.R.) Help to identify and recognize a near miss.