

Emergency Planning

The purpose of this course is to assist management in:

- Describe the types of emergencies that can potentially occur.
- Identify the steps to develop and implement a plan to respond to emergencies.
- Describe the components of an Emergency Preparedness Plan.
- Describe procedures that are required for an emergency response plan.
- Develop the protocol for facilities in the following emergencies.
 1. Fire
 2. Tornado/Severe weather
 3. Medical
 4. Bomb Threat
 5. Chemical Release
 6. Power Outage Planning

This course is intended to also train employees thoroughly to ensure a safe, quick, and orderly evacuation of from an area of danger or potential danger to a designated safe area in the event of an emergency.