

Safe Start

SAFESTART, an advanced safety awareness training program, was authored by Larry Wilson in 1998 after 20 years of assisting companies with their safety processes to reduce injuries faster, easier, and more cost-effectively than any other training program on the market. With average injury reductions over 50% in one year it has proven itself in nearly every environment.

